

Fencing

Santa Clara Adult Education

Worksheet Five - Beginning

Reading Assignment pp. 38-40; 112-113 (Sec. Nos. 41-46; 124) from The Science of Fencing

Chapter Six

1. What are compound attacks? Into how many groups can they be divided? What are the names of these groups? (Sec. No. 41)
2. What is a feint? When is the feint used? (Sec. No. 42)
3. How many parries does a single or simple feint elude? How is each feint named and what are those names? (Sec. No. 43)
4. How is one simple parry eluded? (Sec. No. 44)
5. In how many movements is the feint direct executed? What should be given absolute precedence during the feint? (Sec. No. 45)

Chapter Nine

1. What are renewed attacks? How many renewed attacks are there? What differentiates each renewed attack? (Sec. No. 124)